

CONVENTIONAL CONVENTION

Monday Oct. 5, 1846.

The members elect of the Convention met at 12 o'clock, and temporarily organized by appointing Moses M. Strong, from Iowa county, President pro tem. The following officers of the Convention were then proposed and duly elected, viz: William W. Treadwell, Secretary pro tem; John Starkweather, Sergeant at Arms pro tem; and Henry Brown, Messenger pro tem. A resolution to that effect having been duly passed, the President appointed a committee of five to receive and examine the credentials presented by the members of the convention, and report upon the same at 3 P. M. this day. The Convention was then, upon motion adjourned until 3 o'clock P. M.

The Convention met at three o'clock agreeable to adjournment, the President pro tem to the Chair, and proceeded to business by appointing a committee of three, consisting of John Y. Smith, D. A. J. Upham and John H. Manahan, to report upon the number and description of the officers necessary to be appointed by the Convention. This committee having retired, the committee to receive and examine the credentials, reported through their chairman, that they had duly performed the duty assigned them, and had found the credentials of the members which had been submitted to their examination duly and lawfully attested. Rufus Parks, from Waukesha county, having failed to procure the necessary credentials, was upon motion, allowed a seat in the Convention until they could be received and presented. The chairman of the committee censured the county supervisors of some of the counties from which no returns have been received, whose duty it is to forward their returns to the Territorial Secretary without delay, whereas they have yet neglected to do so. To this case he ascribed much difficulty in deciding upon the proper mode of proceeding in the business entrusted to them.

Upon motion of Henry S. Baird, of Brown county it was Resolved, That a majority of all members present shall be necessary to elect all officers of this Convention.

During the pending of this question, the committee appointed to report upon the number and description of the officers necessary to the convention, returned and reported through their chairman, that the following was the result of their deliberations: That the following officers were necessary in proceeding with the business of the convention, and are recommended to be appointed, viz: one President; one Secretary; one Assistant Secretary; one Sergeant at Arms; two Doorkeepers and two messengers. Which report was received, and after an informal motion to strike out the "two" before Doorkeepers, and insert "one," it was finally decided that the recommendation of the Committee, should be adopted as a guide in appointing the officers of the Convention.

A motion was then proposed that the Convention proceed at once to the election of a President, which gave rise to considerable discussion, principally between Mr. Ryan, of Racine, and Mr. Baird of Brown.

Mr. Marshall M. Strong advocated at some length, the propriety of deferring the election of a President, in order that the good old Democratic usage of a caucus meeting and nomination had been gone through. He was of opinion that much time and debate would be saved by this mode of proceeding. He hoped, therefore, that the question would be laid upon the table, and that the Convention would adjourn, and thus afford the Democratic members an opportunity to form some concert of action upon the important subject of choosing a presiding officer for the Convention. Mr. S. made some remarks in relation to the political character of the Convention—so truly democratic; and was strenuously opposed to proceeding at once to the selection of a President, for the additional reason that it would afford the whigs an opportunity of mingling in the strife which must ensue between themselves in selecting a President from among so many whose claims to the honor were of equal magnitude.

Mr. Ryan also spoke in favor of deferring this election, and coincided in opinion with his colleague, in regard to the policy of precluding the whig members from any influence in the selection of a President, who was to govern the proceedings of the Convention upon strictly Democratic principles. And advocated an adjournment until himself and colleagues had determined upon a candidate in caucus.

Messrs. Baird, from Brown, and Dennis, from Dodge, spoke in opposition to thus deferring the action of the Convention upon this subject. Mr. Baird spoke at some length in support of his views. He did not, as the gentleman from Racine had asserted with the ease with him, come there to represent any party, or any portion of the people of his country, but as a representative of the whole of that country. He was sorry that the subject of politics should thus early have been introduced in the proceedings—he was, as well known to the members present, an advocate of whig principles, yet he would willingly vote for any candidate proposed, inasmuch as he was of opinion that no member of the Convention could be nominated who could be deemed unfit or unworthy of the office.

After some further discussion of the question, the motion to adjourn was renewed and lost, upon the yeas and nays, 37 in favor of, and 51 against.

The motion was then put, and prevailed, and the Convention proceeded by ballot, to elect a President, and Messrs. David Giddings, of Sheboygan, and David Noggle, of Rock, were appointed Tellers. The first ballot resulted as follows: whole number of votes cast, 29; necessary for a choice, 47; of which

D. A. J. Upham, of Mil. rec'd	33
Marshall M. Strong, of Racine	26
Moses M. Strong, of Iowa	20
Wm. R. Smith, of Iowa	10

scattering

A second and third ballot was gone through, with a like result; but upon the fourth, D. A. J. Upham having received 52 of the 91 votes cast, was declared duly elected President of the Convention. A committee of two were, on motion, appointed to conduct the President to the chair. Upon taking his seat, Mr. Upham briefly returned his thanks for the honor thus conferred upon him. He was fully aware of the responsibilities of the office, and of his inability to preside over the deliberations of the Convention. The members of the Convention had assembled for no usual purpose—they had met to frame and establish a Constitution for the future State of Wisconsin—to found the Organic Law upon which all our future operations depended, and he hoped the members of the Convention would deliberate with great calmness upon all measures brought forward for their consideration, and which would so intimately affect the interests and welfare of our future state. The Hon. President proceeded to say: We have the Constitution of the United States for our guide; and the constitutions of the older States, with the revisions and amendments thereto to instruct us in our deliberations upon this important subject. He was in favor of all measures which would insure the greatest good to the greatest number, that "the blessings of government, like the dew of Heaven, should descend alike upon the rich and the poor." It was a long time since he had taken part in the parliamentary proceedings, and he should therefore seek advice from those of more experience than himself in conducting the duties of the honorable office assigned him. He was aware that he, as is the case of all others, was liable to err, but he hoped such errors should be attributed to their proper source, they should be strictly errors of the head, and not of the heart.

The President having finished speaking, the Convention was, on motion, adjourned.

THE AMERICAN ART-UNION.

We have been favored with a pamphlet, giving a detailed account of the transactions of the New York American Art-Union for 1845. This Institution was, some years since, incorporated, with the object of promoting to the Fine Arts in the United States. It is managed by gentlemen who are not Artists, and have no privileges beyond the other members, and no compensation, except the satisfaction of serving the cause of Art. The following is the plan pursued, which is believed to be the best adapted to the situation of our country, the nature of our institutions, and the wants, habits, and tastes of our people. In furtherance of a truly national object it unites great public good with private gratification, at little individual expense. Every subscriber of five dollars is a member for the year. The money thus obtained, after paying necessary expenses, is applied, in the first instance, to the production of a large and costly original engraving, in the highest style of American Art. For every five dollars paid by him, every member receives a copy of this engraving. Every member also receives an annual report containing the proceedings and addresses at the annual distribution, a list of the members, &c., and sometimes an additional work of art. The residue of the money is applied to the purchase of American works of Art—Painting, Sculpture, &c.,—varying in price from twenty to several hundred dollars. These works of Art—the paintings being richly framed—are publicly distributed, by lot, among all the members, on the Friday before Christmas in each year—every member having one share for every five dollars paid by him. Each member is thus certain of receiving, in return, the value of the five dollars paid; and has, also, a chance of drawing a painting, or other work of art of great value. The income of the Art-Union, last year, was more than $10,000; and the number of paintings distributed, 123. The Art-Union rooms also contain a fine Picture Gallery, which is always hung with Paintings, and is always open free of charge. The Committee have already purchased several pictures, of great value, by our most distinguished artists, which may be seen at the rooms. The engraving for 1846, "Sir Walter Raleigh parting with his wife, on the morning of his execution," from Leutze's fine picture, is now engraving in line, of the large size of 10-1-2 by 15-1-4 inches, by Burt.

W. C. Bryant, Esq., is President. We learn from the Annual Report, that the Union now numbers 3,233 members, and has an income of over $10,000. During the year, 123 paintings were purchased from 45 artists. The Institution seems to us an excellent one, well calculated, not only to foster a taste for the Fine Arts, but to encourage native merit and genius.—Phil. Inq.

THE CLAY VASE.—This beautiful specimen of American workmanship, procured by the ladies of Tennessee, to be presented to the Hon. Henry Clay, has arrived in this city. We have not learned when, and in what manner, it is to be presented to Mr. Clay. The following is a description of it:

Body, egg form, resting on an arched pedestal, with Gothic columns, in imitation of mottled stone. On the capital of each pillar is an American eagle—on the plinth, under the arch, a square die block, on which is the inscription. On the top of the cover stands the Goddess of Liberty, with cap and shield; around the cover, beneath the figure, the focus in an angular form, representing Union and Eternity—the handles are oak limbs, over the top of which is thrown the American flag, hanging from it in drapery. On the front of the body, the figure of Diogenes, holding in his hand a medallion bust of Henry Clay, surrounded by emblematical devices of Commerce, Agriculture, the Arts and Sciences, backed by the pillar of Wisdom. On the reverse side, the Mill Boy of the Slashes, with landscape and distinct view of the mill. The body, near the top, enclosed by a wreath richly chased with agricultural productions and implements of husbandry.—Nashville's Orthopolitan.

THE GAZETTE.

LEVI ALDEN, EDITOR.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1846.

The Editor for two weeks past has been on the sick list, which will account for any deficiencies in this and last week's paper. Providence permitting, he will be able by next week to resume the Goose quill.

THE LAKES AND WESTERN RIVERS.

On our first page will be found an interesting article on the subject of "The Lakes and Western Rivers." It will be seen that the suggestion is made of holding a Grand Convention at St. Louis or some other convenient point as shall be agreed on, of those interested in Western Commerce, for the purpose of taking such measures as shall hereafter secure "future justice to the West."

No man in Wisconsin, however limited may be his business, but must feel a great interest in the improvement of the navigation of the Western Waters.

That interest too, must continue to increase from year to year in proportion to the fast increase of the surplus products of our fertile country. A united effort of western men, such as is called for in the article above alluded to, is imperiously demanded by the exigency of the times unless we are willing to remain as at present, subject to all the inconveniences and losses of an uncertain and dangerous navigation.

The time and place of holding the proposed convention, do not strike us as being very material. Let the press and the people agitate the subject until a strong feeling shall be manifested in favor of holding such a convention, and the minor matters may be very easily settled.

MAINE ELECTION.

The recent election in Maine has thrown dismay upon the faces of all northern democrats with southern principles. The wind of Polkism is broken there forever.

Two hundred and ninety-nine towns give for

Bronson (Whig)	27,016.
"All others,"	8,499.
Dana (Loco)	35,515.
	30,256.

Majority against Dana, 5,259.

This is a great work, and decides the fate of the administration, so far as Maine can do it.

The table of Representatives shows so large a number of failures to elect, that no sufficient calculation can be formed as to the House.

The Whigs have it in their power to secure the House, if they work worthily of their principles. In regard to the State Senate there is uncertainty. But few Senators have been chosen, and probably more than half of them are whigs. This body will depend upon the House for its political complexion.

Maine has now one Whig member in Congress. She has probably just elected two whig members and may secure more at the future trials. Lococoism has elected but one or two.

The trident of slavery and democracy has lost its power in New England.—She is altogether, all and everywhere, redeemed—and will present an unbroken front against the dominion of negro slavery.

DISTINGUISHED AMERICANS IN LONDON.

We see by a correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune, that quite a number of the prominent men of our country are at present in London.

Among the most conspicuous are Elihu Burritt the learned Blacksmith, of Massachusetts; Dr. Dwight, of N. Y. City; Dr. Forsyth, of Newburgh, N. Y.; Dr. Mussey, of Cincinnati, the celebrated surgeon; Louis Dwight known widely for his labors in prison discipline; Fred. Douglass the fugitive slave; Wm. Lloyd Garrison, the editor of the Boston Liberator and Brother Hymes, the Mill-er, all ardently laboring in their respective fields.

The Learned Blacksmith has come to the determination to take a welding heat on the civilized world, and if possible link all mankind together into "A League of Universal Brotherhood."

The correspondent says—"The more surely to accomplish this end he has concluded to remain here a twelve month. He is writing up his idea directly and indirectly in Douglass's Weekly Newspaper, which admits his articles not only freely but with pride." Among other means which Mr. Burritt has employed, is that of printed, on a little sheet some twenty or thirty "recipes" for cooking Indian Corn which he calls by some such names as this: "An Olive Leaf from the Housewives of New England to the Housewives of Old England." This he scatters all over the realm.

Brown, of the Democrat has been elected printer for the Constitutional Convention against Holt, of the Argus. Brown received 50 votes, Holt 45.

STEAMBOAT ACCIDENT.—The Steamboat Nile, on the 23th inst., met with a very serious accident on her upward trip by running on a dangerous reef of rocks, which make off Pea's Bluff, 25 miles South East of Mackinac. She had on a full load of steam when she struck, and the speed at which she was running forced her "some way" onto the rock. There was a high sea on at the time, and her situation became dangerous, but by throwing over most of her deck load, consisting of emigrants goods, merchandise &c. she was enabled to back off. She made her way to Mackinac where she discharged the remainder of her cargo which was taken on by the Illinois.

The loss of freight is estimated at about $10,000, the damage to the boat can not as yet be ascertained. She is to be taken back to Buffalo immediately when she will be repaired as soon as possible.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE FOR OCTOBER.

This Magazine opens with a beautiful engraving entitled "The Bride," a plate of French fashions and a portrait of Royneil Comtes, M. D., one of the contributors, with a sketch of his life by professor Hart. The Magazine is well filled with able articles from the pens of T. M. Reid; W. P. Palmer; Mr. Elliott; W. A. C. Hosmer; Kate Dashwood; Mrs. Stephens and Alfred B. Street.

RUN OF THE COTTON CROP.—The N. O. Delta of the 13th gives a gloomy account of the cotton crop along the Mississippi and vicinity. The worms have cut off most of the cotton fields, doing incalculable damage. A letter from East Feliciana La., Sept. 9, states that many planters who are in the receipt of 250 to 300 bales, will this season not make over 50 to 50. A letter from Woodville Miss., Sept. 10th, states that the worms have stripped every field of cotton in that part of the country.—Not a green leaf to be seen, and the worms to work on the bolls be more than half grown.

The official canvass of the Dane, Green and Sauk Districts, shows that A. L. Collins, whig, is elected to the Council over Daniel Baxter, Loco; and that W. A. Wheeler and Charles Lum, Loco, and J. W. Stewart, whig, are elected to the House; the latter over Daniel R. Baxter. So that the Baxters, both father and son, are elected to stay at home. A strong case of "a family falling."

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN ST. LOUIS.—

The large Hemp Warehouse 100 feet, front and depth, and three stories high, on Main Street St. Louis, owned by Mr. Waddingham, was destroyed on the night of the 27th September. The building was full of merchandise of various descriptions, all of which was consumed by the flames. The total loss is estimated at $70,000, of which about $50,000 is insured. The principal sufferer is G. W. Jenks the lessee of the warehouse, who had a large amount of goods and Machinery stored therein. The Em' says that nearly three-fourths of all the hemp in the St. Louis Market was destroyed by fire.

DROWNED.—We learn from a gentleman who came from Manitowoc yesterday, afternoon, that Capt. Joseph Carley, of the schooner Active, owned in this place, was lost overboard in the gulf of Monday last, and has not been recovered. The Active was off Manitowoc at the time, bound for this place with a heavy load from Chicago. She is now lying at Manitowoc.—[Green Bay Advocate Oct. 1.

THE PEOPLE OF CANADA ARE NOW ENGAGED IN BORING FOR SALT WATER. They have commenced about 30 rods north of the canal, opposite the center of the village. Salt water of a quality equal to that of the Salina Springs has been found in digging wells in the village.—Oswego Adv.

THERE ARE NOW 68 DIVISIONS OF THE ORDER OF THE SONS OF TEMPERANCE IN OHIO, WITH 4,991 MEMBERS. The Order has been in existence about four years and number in the U. S. 60,000 members.

GEOGRAPHY.—The Jersey (Eng.) News of the 24th August, says that "the brig Adna, Capt. Sherman, has returned to Buffalo with the cargo she carried to Vera Cruz, having been ordered off by the U. S. Squadron."

STRECH.—There are at present in the Bank of England, $80,000,000 in specie. A snug little fortune, that.

SYRACUSE, 9 o'clock P. M.

The Democratic State Convention assembled in this village this morning at 10 o'clock. Chester Loomis of Ontario was chosen President. The whole day was consumed in the organization and hearing the reports of committees appointed to pass upon conflicting claims of delegates from Albany and Madison of the Burnburner division, were admitted, and the Hunker delegation from Oneida. No vote was taken till 7 o'clock, when SILAS WRIGHT received 115 votes, A. J. Parker 7, and H. J. Redfield 8, J. B. Skinner 1, whereupon Gov. WRIGHT was unanimously nominated by the Convention, and ADDISON GARDINER was then nominated for Lieut. Gov., by acclamation.

ADJOURNED TO 9 o'clock Friday Morning.

New Post Office.—A new Post Office has lately been established at Deerfield, in this county, and DAVID R. HYER appointed Post Master.—Madison Express.

MASSACHUSETTS.

The Whigs of Massachusetts held a State convention in Faneuil Hall, Boston, on Wednesday. Hon. CHARLES HUDSON, presided, and GEORGE N. BIGGGS and JOHN REED, present incumbents, were nominated by acclamation as the Whig candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the old Bay State. Great enthusiasm and good feeling pervaded the convention, and spirited addresses were made by Messrs. Stevens, Hudson, Robt. C. Winthrop, J. T. Stevenson, Charles Sumner, Daniel Webster, Stephen C. Phillips, Chas. Francis Adams and others.

The Resolution adopted by the Convention were of the true whig stamp, and embraced all the great topics of the day—the Mexican War—the Tariff—the Oregon Question—Abuse of the Veto—Power—Sub-Treasury—Slavery.—On the latter topic there was some difference of opinion in the Convention, and a series of supplemental resolutions, introduced by Hon. Stephen C. Phillips, was rejected by a vote of 138 to 91.—The ground taken by the Convention on this subject will be seen in the following resolutions, which were adopted with great unanimity:

Resolved, That the Whigs of Massachusetts regard Slavery as a great moral, political, and social evil, and they therefore pledge themselves to present as firm a front of opposition to the institution of Slavery, as is consistent with our allegiance to the Constitution, and our duties as members of the confederacy.

Resolved, That the Whigs of Massachusetts will continue to use all constitutional and proper means to restrain the already preponderating influence of slaveholding interests in the National Legislation, to defeat all measures for its overthrow, and will oppose at all times, with uncompromising zeal and firmness, any further addition of slave-holding States to this Union, out of whatever territory formed; and that they will in like manner oppose all further extension of the slavery of the African race on this continent. If, under the government of Providence, it shall happen that portions of this continent, not belonging to the United States, shall be settled by the Saxons, let those settlers carry with them, wherever they go, together with their own free blood, the blessings of free government and free institutions for all, and chains and fetters for none. Wherever our language is hereafter to be spoken, our history remembered, our example quoted, or our kindred acknowledged, there let universal freedom and equal laws be proclaimed to man.

DAVID WEBSTER entered the Hall while the Resolutions were under consideration and was received with great enthusiasm. His speech on the occasion is so brief that we copy it as follows:

Fellow Citizens and Gentlemen—I consider it a great piece of good fortune even for a few moments to be in so large a body of the representatives of the Whigs of Massachusetts as have here assembled. Whenever the Whigs of Massachusetts assemble, and wherever the Whigs of Massachusetts assemble, there is an odor of liberty I love to inhale—an avowed attachment to our country, which warns a heart now old, but which still beats in accordance with human liberty, whether at home or abroad. First at home, and then abroad. Gentlemen, such a party as the Whig party, made up as it is of intelligent and independent men and masses of men, could not be supposed or expected to agree with entire unanimity upon all these questions of public policy which may arise. A community of feeling and a community of purpose will lead to a co-operation which is necessary to a community of action.—There are topics in relation to which gentlemen high in my regard and warm in my affections see a line of duty not apparent to me. Others rely on other foundations and other hopes, for the welfare of our common country; but for my part, the dark and troubled night has no star above the horizon, but the patriotic, intelligent and united Whig party of the United States. The time of your separation has nearly arrived, and I will merely say that I partake with you in the happiness you feel, that the tried candidates you have selected for the high offices of Governor and Lieut. Governor, will be elected, and the maintenance of sound principles secured in the Common wealth. I rejoice in the anticipation of the spread of good principles, and I firmly believe that there is nothing which will secure them but a firm maintenance of the Whig party.—Gentlemen, thankful for every token of your regard, I sincerely wish that the harmony evinced on this occasion, may lead to that usual great result—the complete and entire triumph of Whig principles.

THE POWER OF TEMPERANCE.—

"Potomac," the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Patriot, thus speaks of the late Felix G. McConnell:

Now that General McConnell is dead and gone, people begin to remember that there were bright spots in his character. I knew him long long ago in Alabama, and while he was in Congress and some of the newspapers and letter-writers were handling him roughly, he would often come to me, on account of our old acquaintance, perhaps, and with tears in his eyes beg of me to intercede in his behalf, and try to get the editors and letter-writers aforesaid to let him alone. He would say that he asked it, not for his own sake, but for the sake of his excellent wife and children. On these occasions I more than once told him that he knew as well as he could be told, how he could put a stop to the abuse he complained of. He would reply,—"I know it, I know it; you would have me stop drinking and frolicking and shut up this walking grocery! But I can't do it. I have tried many times, and it is impossible. I can't stop, but must go on." I once asked him what he expected his end would be? He replied seriously—for he was sober—that he knew not. His wife, he said, was a good Christian, and would go to Heaven,

He hoped his children would; but as for himself, he could only say that at one period of his life he was for thirteen months a sincere exhorter in the Church, and if the God above did not look back to that period of his life with a favorable eye, and save him, why then he would be lost, for he could do nothing now towards saving himself—it was to late!—Poor Mack—peace to your ashes!

ARRIVAL OF THE GREAT WESTERN.

Deficiency in the Harvest.—Failure of the Potato Crop, and other questions.—Advance in Produce.

Capt. MATTHEWS reached our wharf at one P. M. this day. Her news is important. The deficiency of the British harvest—the potatoes especially, is no longer doubtful; it will be very considerable and France is also threatened with a scarcity. The consequence is a further advance in flour and grain.—The accounts are contradictory and the exact advance cannot be given. From the printed accounts it is considerable. The crops on the continent are short. Flour is reported 3s 4s. per bbl. higher. But another paragraph gives the quotation at 27s. 6d. a28.

Corn advanced 3 or 4s. per qr. Bacon and Indian corn are among the articles which have risen.

The cotton market is steady. Grain is rising on the continent. Lord Metcalfe is dead.

The Cholera is making awful ravages in India.

One-fourth of the British troops at Kurrahee were among the thousands of its victims.

The Great Western has one hundred and twenty-six passengers. Sirovi is among them.

Ireland is tranquil. The people are to be employed by Government on public works, and fed by it.

Provisions.—American, during the week just passed, we have very little change to notice in our produce market, save in corn. The weather has continued extremely fine and favorable, and the last remnants of the harvest have been safely secured and housed; but the confirmed loss of the potato crop, with the heavy and steady consumption of all kinds of food, have caused a considerable advance in prices, and large quantities have changed hands on speculation, and at the following prices; Western Canal flour 28s in bins; 30s to 31s duty paid; Indian Corn 41s and 44s per quarter. Wheat also is 3s per quarter dearer, and Indian Meal has realized 22s to 23s per bbl.

The arrivals are large and all the accounts from the States lead us to expect vast supplies from thence at prices which will be remunerative to shippers.

Beef and pork continue in steady demand without alteration in value. Good cheese scarce and wanted.

Lard has advanced from 1 to 2 shillings, and we hear considerable enquiry for lard cake—from £7 10s. to £8 10s. per ton.

In other articles of produce there are no variations in price requiring particular notice.

Money is plentiful, and discount readily obtained from three to three and a half per cent.—From the Buff. Com. Adv.

AMERICAN BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.—

This body is at present in session at New Haven, and is very numerously attended. From the treasurer's report, and the report of the general secretaries, the following statistics are condensed:

"The amount received into the treasury during the year was $262,063, exceeding that of any former year except one; and the expenditures for the same period have been $257,605. Of the 350 missionaries, six have been removed by death. No unexpected obstacles have impeded the missionaries in their work.

"The number of missions is 26, embracing 93 stations, with 134 missionaries, and 208 females and other assistant missionaries, in all 342 sent from this country. Associated with these are twenty native preachers, and 132 native helpers, making the whole number supported by the board 494.

"Under the care of the missionaries are 73 churches, gathered by their labors; to which 1,500 members have been added during the year, and which embrace 24,824 converts from heathenism.

"The missionaries also have the care of seven seminaries for educating native preachers, embracing 487 students; 34 boarding schools, with 1,847 pupils; 602 free day schools, with more than 29,000 pupils; whole number of pupils 31,405.

"Besides these various and abundant labors, the missionaries have the care of 15 printing establishments, with 32 presses and 40 fonts of types, and furnished for printing in 27 different languages, and the whole number of pages printed during the year is about forty millions, or about 460,000 copies of books and tracts."

WISARD'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

The great success attending the use of this Balsam in Pulmonary Diseases, having naturally attracted the attention physicians and others, various opinions and surmises have arisen with regard to its component parts, some have supposed it to contain iodine, others mercury, etc., and to such substances they attribute its extraordinary efficacy. Such opinions being entirely erroneous, and calculated to prejudice many persons against the medicine, we pledge ourselves that it contains nothing of the kind, or anything the least injurious; on the contrary, it is composed principally of simple substances. The Moss of Iceland, the Wild Cherry and Pine of our northern latitudes, are the principal ingredients in the compound. The great secret of its efficacy consists in the method by which they are prepared. Such in fact is the nature and simplicity of this medicine, so powerful in action, yet so mild, safe and pleasant in its operation, that it might be justly termed, "Nature's own prescription," and although but two years have elapsed since it was first made public, we can proudly say it has acquired a celebrity unprecedented by any medicine in use, and is evidently destined to become the most popular and valuable medicine ever discovered.

A RICHMOND GUESS AT GRANT'S PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.—A Richmond paper of a recent date says: "A heavy force is to be poured into the Valley to capture Lynchburg, the Tennessee Railroad, and the James River canal, and to obtain permanent possession of the Danville Railroad. The Central Railroad is to be taken and held by a column pushed on from Fredericksburg to the junction which will give the command of both rivers. They are to land the hand to another column to be landed at the White House. Richmond is thus to be cut off from all communication, and finally, by a powerful army, and the Yankees believe they will capture it and Lee's whole army."

PORTER'S

"Photograph Parlors."

This has been one of the fixed institutions of Janesville. The successful success which has attended these rooms since their opening, has more than met our most sanguine expectations, and a new "bill" seems to be due to the entire community for bestowed upon this institution, and the just appreciation of the liberal patronage.

WORKS OF ART,

we solicit even a larger patronage to enable us by an increase of business to keep the prices of Pictures Within the Reach of All.

For it is known that, despite the fact that pictures are the most desirable of all possessions, they are the most difficult to come by. We shall strive hard to please all, though we cannot promise always to be able to supply the demand. We are now getting a good lot of pictures, and do it with the most possible truth to the artist.

STEREOSCOPES

and Stereoscopic views of local scenes for sale at these prices. We are now prepared to take Stereoscopic pictures of single objects or groups.

From Life or Scenes in Nature.

This is the only gallery in town, perhaps, where photographs can be made with Stereoscopic effect.

COME ONE, COME ALL,

and when you fall to get satisfactory pictures of your selves or of your friends elsewhere.
